

The Path

The path will lead us to graves
Cross the bridge and we'll be slaves
And I will breathe your soul
Now the road will take you home

What can I do to follow you
Where can I go rest
How far have we journeyed now
Let me be your test

I am gone for good
This heart is bound by wood
These roots will eat my bones
Now the worms will guide you home

What can I do to follow you
Where can I go rest
How far have we journeyed now
Let me be your test

What can I do to follow you
Where can I go rest
How far have we journeyed now
Let me be your test

The Collision

We are dancing
Through the darkness
As we glide
We collide

We collide

We are floating
Through the darkness
As we glide
We collide

We collide

The Burial

Warmth will help but will not heal
Repeating patterns, I can't escape
A child swings, she swings so carelessly
Oblivious and quiet is she.
Skipping stones so hollow and cold
Within arm's reach but she's miles away
If you knew what I knew
You would never stay

You trade your freedom for safety I
Think you deserve neither
Take me down below to your frozen altar
I watch myself die as I pretend to live

I won't be buried by the sins of your mistakes
I won't be carried
An army refusing to kneel will fall

Throw flowers upon my own grave
For the life I said I'd live
Suffocating, noose of hair around my neck
Swaying gallows
In the chapel where they wept
As if life wasn't fragile enough
Are you waiting to call my bluff
Oh, the things I've sacrificed to get here

Won't trade my freedom for safety
I'm not living either
Take me down below
To your frozen altar
I watch myself die as I pretend to live

I won't be buried by the sins of your mistakes
I won't be carried

Nothing has changed
Worthless I can't atone
For all the sins I commit on my own
Worthless down to my soul
Hung from the gallows
And swinging below

One day I will face myself
One day I won't hate myself
One day I will face myself
One day I will

The Creation

Godless wonder
Godless wonder

It's not what I wanted
To be alone
If I could turn back time
I would save your soul

Staring out across the sea
Swimming through infinity
Eternal divinity

I am Creation x5

Life
Sprang
From her still neck

Godless wonder
Godless wonder

It's not what I wanted
To be alone
If I could turn back time
I would save your soul

Staring out across the sea
Eternal divinity

I am Creation x5

The Facade

All that's left of me are memories
Victim of thought's disease
Round and round we play the same old games
So sick of staring death through windowpanes

You pluck and play- The Pretender
And I'm just living inside four walls of misery
The Morning Star and The Savior
Are fighting for me
But I can't seem to find favor
I'm so alone

Is this death or self-lobotomy
Please, just say the fuck is wrong with me
Redemption or rage- Choose your side
Redemption or rage- Choose your side
Some pain never ends- Some pain never ends

Round and round we play the same old games

You pluck and play- The Pretender
The Morning Star and The Savior
Are fighting for me
I'm so alone

I'm sitting, waiting in my own mind
Love falls love goes love comes around
I'm sitting, living out my own lies
I hate the me that I've become
Done waiting, waiting for my own life
I hate the me that I've become
Done waiting, waiting for my own life
My life to change
Sitting in silence
No longer just a victim
I am more than me
The Morning Star
Set me free
Redemption or rage
Choose your side
